Join us at the second Texas Biennial Juvenile Firesetter Intervention Conference for a unique educational and networking opportunity.

We have invited some of the country's leading experts on juvenile firesetter issues for this exciting two-and-a-half day conference.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn new strategies for working with child and adolescent firesetters and their families. Conference is held only every other year.

Mental health professionals, the fire service, teachers, peace officers, social workers, and members of the juvenile justice system will acquire tools for addressing this critical community problem.

Classes include program development, interviewing, intervention strategies, community partners, clinical approaches and more.

Some of the invited speakers include:

- ✓ Chuck Chaffin, Prevention Officer, Lake Oswego Fire Department, OR
- ✓ Joe Meinecke, Program Manager, Fire Stoppers of Pierce County, WA
- ✓ David Wilcox, Ed.D., Clinical Coordinator, Massachusetts Coalition for Juvenile Firesetter Intervention Programs; Clinical Director Adolescent Consultation Services, Middlesex County MA Juvenile Court Clinics

Continuing education credit available.
